

Jean Buquet

Titles: 25 Sources: 1 Stills: 0

Born: Paris; April 18th 1926

The Moving Picture Boy entry:

"The leader of the anti-Rozet faction in "NOUS LES GOSSES" was an aggressive, rather sneering 15-year old (with faint touches of Jean Gabin and Farley Granger) who three years earlier had been a treacherous little wimp in "LES DISPARUS DE SAINT AGIL". However he could, on occasion, be quite a dear.

In his late teens Buquet was in four more films: in 1942 "LES CADETS DE L'OcéAN" and "FOU D'AMOUR", in 1943 "LUCRECE" and "LE CARREFOUR". Then, in 1944, he volunteered for military service, and was in the liaison section of Leclerc's army during the final invasion of Germany. After the war he became a press reporter."
