Excerpt from Empire – February 2001 – review:

“William Miller is a 15-year old aspiring music writer in the 1970s. Given the dream assignment of going on the road with band Stillwater for a Rolling Stone feature, he embarks on the trip with enthusiasm, much to the chagrin of his mother. Once on the road, he feels his life changing forever.”

*William learns how to pick up girls on the road, as we see.
