“The life of an eight-year old is not always strewn with roses. But with a little good temper and inventiveness many problems may be overcome. The headstrong young hero of the story, played by 9-year old Samuel Haus, knows exactly what he wants, and that’s rewarded. Tsatsiki, whose actual name is just plain Tobias, lives in Sweden and has but one great wish: to look up his father who lives in Greece. A rousing, realistic, funny and moving film. *** ”
