Born: US; 1911 ?

The Moving Picture Boy entry:

"The date of birth is dubious – he may have been born earlier, and certainly looks older than his Franklin Kiddy co-star Francis Carpenter. Georgie shouldn't be confused with George E. Stone (1903-67), who started playing reptilian crooks around 1927. He looks a solid, serious little boy, and "ALI BABA" was his first appearance with the Franklin tots. In 1920 he was chosen as W. S. Hart's mini-cowboy sidekick in "JUST PALS", and the following year played the star's younger son when Hart had a rare non-Western role in "THE WHISTLE" (seeking retribution for the death of his older boy in an industrial accident)."
