Leonard Maltin's Movie and Video Guide 1996 review:

“Tedious British film version of Lewis Carroll’s classic proves Americans don’t have a monopoly on making bad children’s musicals. Waste of a good cast. Filmed in Todd-AO 35. *½ ”

Speelfilm Encyclopedie review – identical to above, adding:

“Waste of a good cast, unrecognisable beneath the make-up.”

Halliwel's Film Guide review

“Live-action version which starts amiably enough but soon becomes flat and un inventive, with a star cast all at sea and tedium replacing the wit of the original. Production design: Michael Stringer * ”
