International Film Guide 1982 note:

"The Learning Corporation of America acquires several interesting new educational films each year, but has accelerated its own production programme in recent years, winning several awards en route. Its feature film arm, Highgate Films, under the development of Linda Gottlieb, has been developing several projects recently. As usual, the latest L.C.A releases cover the entire gamut of human relationships... "A DIFFERENT KIND OF WINNING" (27 minutes) focuses on skateboarding in California, with a human interest storyline to add weight to the terrific imagery..."
