NAMBLA Bulletin - vol. 6/6 - media note
 (July/Aug 85):

"SHORT FILMS ABOUT YOUTH: There's a few new 30-minute films worth watching for... Stephen C. Ning's "FRECKLED RICE" focuses on a 13-year- old Chinese-American boy, played by J. P. Wing. With his parents scheduled to move from Boston, Wing runs off to his Americanised older brother. The title suggests the conflict between the two cultures."
