Speelfilm Encyclopedie review:

"The first film Ford directed after he left Universal was for Fox. Although he delivered a reasonable action-Western, this was certainly not the Ford the world would come to know years later. Paul Scofield adapted John McDermott's story and George Schneiderman stood behind the camera. ** "

NFT monthly bulletin - August/September '72 - note:

" JUST PALS is an affectionate portrait of a village loafer and the young boy he befriends, with some splendid location work and a winning performance from Buck Jones, later to become a popular Western star. "

The Moving Picture Boy entry on Stone:

"The date of birth [ie: 1911] is dubious - he may have been born earlier, and certainly looks older than his Fr@@@@@@@@
