No further information currently available. United Artists was founded in 1919 by husband and wife Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford, with Charlie Chaplin (the three top box office stars of the day) and D. W. Griffith, but this title pre-dates the forming of their company, which give the stars more absolute control over their productions.

See remakes in 1939, 1986 and 1995 (there will certainly have been TV serial versions, but I've no information on those) and subject index under SILENT CINEMA.
