“Madelief has all kind of adventures. From the well-known books by Guus Kuijer. With Filemon Schöffer.”

No further information currently available. Why is it only children who have “all kinds of adventures”? Just plumb lucky, I guess. The series is related in some way to the 1998 Dutch children’s film “KRASSEN IN HET TAFELBLAD” (“Scratches on the Table”), in which a girl called Madelief investigates the life of her late grandmother. The film and the series may be one and the same. “Madeliefje” (the diminutive form) means “daisy”. Nothing else is known of Filemon Schöffer.

See subject index under TV SERIES, pending some gram of worthwhile description.
