Film Review 1991-92 review:

"A new teacher (Michele Placido - the only professional actor in the film) faces up to the tough boys at a reform school in Palermo (played by the actual schoolkids). Routine treatment of a familiar subject."

Video Movie Guide 1993 review:

"A teacher in between assignments accepts a position at a notorious boys' reform school. His students [i.e. pupils] are tough street kids with little hope of redemption. Updated version of "TO SIR, WITH LOVE", Italian style. In Italian with English subtitles. Not rated, but contains violence and profanity [sic].
