Variety International Film Guide 2000
review:

"Eight-year old Oscar sets out to rescue his mother, who has been kidnapped by the evil Mr Black. Together with his little sister Miranda and his dog Mac he encounters friends and enemies."

"...Directors and producers, obliged increasingly to look for alternative funding in the private sector, have been establishing co-production agreements with other Spanish-speaking countries... The first children's movie produced in Venezuela since 1985, "OSCAR'S MAGIC ADVENTURE" ("La Mágica Aventura de Oscar") [is a] Mexican-Colombian-Venezuelan co-production."

[no listing in "Leonard Maltin's Movie and Video Guide 2001"]

No further information currently available. Carlos Montilla presumably plays Oscar.

See subject index under DOGS, KIDNAPPING and SOUTH & CENTRAL AMERICA.
