No further information currently available. A silent musical, now there's something you don't come across every day. The identity, age and even sex of the orphan must remain a mystery. Films of the same title were released in 1909 (from Warwick Trading Co.) and 1917 (from Windsor Films), but seem to have no connection with this. For those who may be interested, it was one of a series from the same film-maker in 1901 to accompany recitals of popular songs. Others were “ARRY ON THE STEAMBOAT”, “BRITAIN'S TRIBUTE TO HER SONS” and “THE WAIF AND THE WIZARD or: THE HOME MADE HAPPY”.
