Video Movie Guide 1993 review:

“One of the many sequels to L. Frank Baum’s now-classic fantasy story, this film version tells the story of a poor Munchkin boy’s adventures en route to Oz’s Emerald City. The Patchwork Girl is just one of many strange and wonderful character encountered. Silent, with musical score. *** ”

No further information currently available, but it’s entirely possible both the “Munchkin boy” and “patchwork girl” were in their late teens or mid twenties. On the other hand they may not have been, and the title would belong here in either case, as deriving from a children’s tale. There certainly are a surprising, not to say alarming, number of sequels and disguised remakes of "THE WIZARD OF OZ", silent versions of which appeared in 1910 and 1924.
