"The life of an eight-year old is not always strewn with roses. But with a little good temper and inventiveness many problems may be overcome. The headstrong young hero of the story, played by 9-year old Samuel Haus, knows exactly what he wants, and that's rewarded. Tsatsiki, whose actual name is just plain Tobias, lives in Sweden and has but one great wish: to look up his father who lives in Greece. A rousing, realistic, funny and moving film. *** "

No further information currently available. In "CENTRAL DO BRASIL", made the same year, another boy set out on a quest to locate his father in, as the title makes clear, the heart of Brazil. Social trends being what they are, this quest for an absent father theme will touch home with many in young audiences.
