The Movies note:

"The endearing personality of Jackie Cooper and the calculated hominess of Chic Sale had begun to please audiences even before the dawn of the new era."

No further information currently available. Cooper was 11, a year after his success in "THE CHAMP" and "SKIPPY". He would continue to play the lovable snub-nosed tyke for some years yet (if indeed he ever stopped), in "THE BOWERY" ('33, as "Swipes McGurk"), "PECK'S BAD BOY" ('34), "DINKY" ('35) and so forth.
